

AN ATHLETE TALKS.

SENSIBLE ADVICE FROM THE LIPS OF A PERFECTLY MADE MAN.

How a Perfectly Made Man is Constituted—Why It Is That Girls Are Often More Healthy in Appearance Than Their Brothers—How to Be Healthy.

She had been to church. As she walked home she looked up and saw Muldoon.

From the very beginning women have liked big men—men who are physically big—and when by some accident do care for little men it's ten to one the brains are big. To every woman, and woman is at heart an uncivilized creature, there is a certain pleasure in the knowledge that a man can, if he wants to, kill you with a blow. The woman who has not had this sensation is the one who has cultivated the original woman out of herself and is busy searching for fresh emotions. Consequently Hercules is to a woman more beautiful than Adonis, and if she admires a man who mentally is strong, a thousand times more does she care for the man who can if he will govern by physical strength and become what Swinburne calls "King of Pain." You can't deny this, nor explain it, but it's true.

The churchgoing young woman who met Mr. Muldoon was inquisitive, and she made up her mind that she was going to get some points on bigness and beauty from him; so with the audacity of the fox terrier, the dog of the day, she asked:

"Mr. Muldoon, what constitutes a perfectly made man?"

"One whose neck, biceps and calves all measure the same."

It was a bit impudent, but that is the prerogative of a woman and so she asked, "Do you?"

And he quietly answered, "Yes."

Then she inquired, "What is the reason that as one walks in New York one notices that the women are larger, look more healthy, walk better, and from a physical standpoint are better specimens than the men?"

"Well," said he, "the trouble begins with the care of the boy when he is a little chap; everything here is sacrificed to the cultivation of the intellect, and the small boy's physical condition isn't paid much attention to. You see the sons of rich men who are weak, miserable specimens, killing themselves with cigarettes, smaller and less strong than their sisters and having no strength physically. A good many of them are cowards. Train a boy morally and physically first, and his brain will respond when you call on it. Train the brain at the expense of the body and you have just such specimens of manhood as you laugh at."

"Mr. Muldoon, when you get a man down and are looking him straight in the eyes and know that you have him almost in your power, what are you thinking of?"

"I am thinking only of one thing, and that is where I can best keep him where I want him to be."

Then he was asked, "How long have you been an athlete?"

"Since I was fifteen years old, and I am now forty-one. I weigh 215 pounds in my clothes, 205 in fighting trim, or, as the say in the south, in the buff. After I was thirty-five years old I allowed myself to gain ten pounds, because after that age I think a man needs a little more flesh. I have never used tobacco and I don't drink."

"What do I think of women? To be quite honest, I am a little afraid of them; they are not so trustworthy as horses or dogs? What kind of a woman do I like?
I like a womanly woman, a woman who is gentle and affectionate and who isn't loud. I like a woman whose face is clean, not dandied all over with rouge and powder. I like a woman who has a little bit of consideration for a man, and who, while he is willing to give her devotion and love, is ready to return it with affection and kindly thoughts."

"But do you want me to tell you what is killing half the population of this country?"

"The inquisitive one said she did—she was a seeker for knowledge."

"It's the vile air that is in the cars, boats, half the houses and hotels, and in all the places of amusement. You get in a parlor car, and there is one person in that car an invalid, or a woman, who insists on having all the ventilators closed, and you have got to sit, possibly sleep, in that foul air, breathing in the disagreeable odor of everybody else's body. If they would spend less money on making a car handsome and more on making it healthy, there would not be half as much wickedness as there is, for when men and women are thoroughly well there is not much chance of their going wrong."

"But about women?"

"I think there are 100 good women to one good man, and where a woman makes a mistake it usually is the fault of a man. It is perfect nonsense, however, shooting such creatures, as we have heard of lately. They ought to be caught by the nape of their necks and tossed out of a window and left to get along as best they can."

"Who is your favorite actor?"

"Mr. Booth."

"What are your favorite flowers?"

"Violets."

"What is your favorite color?"

"Pale blue."

And then, with a characteristic jump from flowers and colors, the inquisitive one asked, "At a prize fight do they spill much blood?"

"No," said Muldoon; "the amount of blood spilled is usually very much exaggerated. When Sullivan fought Kilrain, on July 8, 1889, the fight lasted two hours and eighteen minutes, and there wasn't enough blood shed to entirely stain a pocket handkerchief.—A Woman

TO MEET AT HELENA.

Montana's Chief City to Welcome Three Big Conventions.
Three national conventions are to meet at Helena, this summer, the first being that of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, which will hold a session of nine days, beginning June 14.

THE AUDITORIUM.
To accommodate the expected visitors a large auditorium is being built. It is to have a frontage of 180 feet and a depth of 139 feet. Another portion, to be devoted to a public library, is 84 feet deep.
The material used is brick and blue limestone. The shape is to be elliptical, with a floor space 61 feet wide and 100 feet deep.

The local committee of the Ancient Order of United Workmen expect that the convention will be attended by over 4,000 members and friends. Every plan possible will be adopted to make the stay of the visitors pleasant. There will be trips to the National park, jaunts to gold mines and visits to Broadwater natorium, the largest swimming tank in the country. There, surrounded by all that is beautiful and entertaining, the guests may swim and dive, romp and frolic beneath a sheltering roof to their heart's delight. This swimming bath is 300 feet long and 100 feet wide, and varies from three to twenty feet in depth.

Joseph W. Kinsley, the supreme master workman of the A. O. U. W., has been more or less prominently connected

J. W. KINSLEY, JAMES SULLIVAN, with the order since 1873 as an organizer of separate jurisdictions, supreme overseer and supreme foreman. He reached his present position in 1891. He is a lawyer and lives at Helena.

Colonel James Sullivan is the grand receiver of the order for the state of Montana and chairman of the committee on arrangements for the reception of the guests. He is by birth an Irishman, but has lived in America since early youth.
In 1878 he left New York city and went to Helena. In 1885 he was elected alderman from the Fifth ward, and the next year was chosen mayor of the city. In 1887 he was appointed by Governor Hanser a member of his staff with the rank of colonel, and the same year he was made auditor of Montana, which position he filled until the territory was admitted to statehood. At the first state convention held at Amundson he was nominated secretary of state, but declined. He is a real estate dealer.

Columbus Day in Baltimore.

The Catholic churches of Baltimore will celebrate the 400th anniversary of the landing of Columbus in an appropriate manner. An elaborate programme is being arranged at the suggestion of Cardinal Gibbons, who is deeply interested in having a suitable religious and civic display on Oct. 12. The religious celebration, according to a Baltimore paper, will include masses in all of the Catholic churches at an early hour, and at 11 o'clock pontifical high mass will be celebrated by Cardinal Gibbons in the cathedral. All of the priests of the city will be invited to be present at this mass. The Rev. Dr. O'Gorman, of the Catholic university at Washington, has been selected to preach the sermon. The pope has announced his intention to write an encyclical letter on the discovery of America and the position which the church at Rome occupied at that time toward Columbus and the assistance which was rendered him by the church. The programme of the civic display has not been decided upon, but it will probably include a big torchlight procession, in which the Catholic Benevolent legion, the Young Catholic Friends society and all the societies and lyceums of the various churches will be invited to unite.

The Late Professor Von Hoffmann.

A gentleman who was particularly popular with American visitors to Berlin was Professor William von Hoffmann, the eminent German chemist who died a few weeks ago. Owing to his sojourn in the United States he spoke English well, and several years ago addressed the Americans at Berlin at their Thanksgiving dinner. The speech was flattering to the people of the United States.
Since the resignation of Bunsen from the professorship of chemistry at Heidelberg it has been the ambition of almost every American studying chemistry in Germany to be a pupil of Hoffmann.
He always took the greatest interest in his American pupils. He often had more than a score of them in his laboratory at one time. The late Emperor Frederick was also his pupil. When he came to the throne he ennobled his former preceptor.

A Range of Magnetic Ore.

A Kansas City paper says that there is a bowlder in the Ozarks which will attract a jackknife dropped nine feet away, and that along the line of the fifth principal meridian in the counties of Carter, Reynolds, Iron and Washington the lines of east and west surveys are deflected from the true course several degrees, the needle being affected by deposits of loadstone.

A boil hurts, but it helps It shows you plainly what you need. It wouldn't be there, if your blood were pure and your system in the right condition. And they would be, if you take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.
It carries health with it.
All Blood, Skin, and Scalp Diseases, from a common blotch or eruption to the worst Scrofula, are cured by it. It invigorates the liver, purifies and enriches the blood, and rouses every organ into healthful action.
In the most stubborn forms of Skin Diseases, such as Salt-rheum, Eczema, Tetter, Erysipelas, Carbuncles, and kindred ailments, and with Scrofula in every shape, and all blood-taints, there's nothing that can equal it as a perfect and permanent remedy.
That's the reason it's the only medicine of its kind that can be guaranteed. If it fails to benefit or cure, in any case, you have your money back. And that makes it the cheapest blood-purifier sold, for you pay only for the good you get.
Can you ask more?

SHERIFF'S SALE.—IN CHANCERY of New Jersey—Between Schuyler B. Jackson, complainant, and Anna L. Moffat et als, defendants. Pl. in. for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above stated writ of fieri facias, to me directed, I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the Court House in Newark, on Tuesday, the fourteenth day of June next, at 10 o'clock P. M., all that tract or parcel of land and premises situated, lying and being in the township of Bloomfield, Essex County, New Jersey.

Beginning at a point in the northerly line of Fairview Place, distant westerly from Weaver Avenue one hundred and fifty feet; thence (1) north twenty-seven degrees and fifty-five minutes east one hundred feet; thence (2) at right angles with the last course, in a westerly direction, one hundred feet; thence (3) at right angles with the last course, in a southerly direction, one hundred feet to the northerly line of Fairview Place, and thence (4) along the northerly line of the said Fairview Place, in a westerly direction, one hundred feet to the place of beginning.
Being the third tract described in a deed from Anna L. Moffat, Sheriff of Essex County, to said Anna L. Moffat, August 5, 1890.

And in case the proceeds of said sale shall be insufficient to satisfy said complainant's mortgage, with costs and interest, then the tract secondly and thirdly described in said bill shall be sold; that is to say, all those tracts or parcels of land and premises situated, lying and being in the township of Bloomfield, in the County of Essex and State of New Jersey.

First Tract—Beginning at a point in the easterly line of Orchard Street, distant from Montgomery Street three hundred and fifty-three feet six inches; thence (1) in an easterly direction one hundred and seventy-four feet and two inches to land of Samuel Bell; thence (2) along said Bell and Benson's lands, in a northerly direction, fifty feet; thence (3) along said Benson's land, in a westerly direction, one hundred and seventy-four feet and six inches to Orchard Street; thence (4) along the easterly line of said Orchard Street, in a southerly direction, fifty feet to the place of beginning.
Being the first tract described in said deed.

Second Tract—Beginning on the easterly side of said Orchard Street at the northwesterly corner of a lot recently conveyed by Samuel Benson and wife to Patrick Dillon; thence (1) along the northerly side of said lot north eighty-eight degrees and fifty-five minutes east one hundred and seventy-four feet and six inches to Samuel Bell's land; thence (2) north one degree west along said Bell's line fifty feet; thence (3) south eighty-eight degrees and fifty-five minutes west one hundred and seventy-four feet and ten inches to said Orchard Street; thence (4) along said Orchard Street, in a southerly direction, being fifty feet to the place of beginning. Being the second tract described in said deed.

MASTER'S SALE OF LAND.

In Chancery of New Jersey—Between Joseph
A. Preston et al., complainants, and James F.
Wilson et als., defendants, on bill, etc. Decree for sale.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of a decree made by the Chancellor of the State of New Jersey in the above stated cause, bearing date on the twenty-ninth day of December, 1891, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-one, L.
Roderick Byington, one of the Special Masters of the said Court of Chancery, will sell at public vendue, to the highest bidder, on the premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the township of Bloomfield, in the County of Essex and State of New Jersey, Monday the eleventh day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two, at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon, of said last mentioned day the premises in said decree mentioned and therein described as follows, to wit:

First Tract—Beginning on the southerly side of Newark and Pompton Turnpike road (now Bloomfield Avenue), at the northeast corner of a lot lately owned and occupied by John Wilde, from thence along said Turnpike Road south thirty-one degrees east one chain and seventeen links, thence south forty-one degrees west five chains and ten links to Moffat's land, thence northwest along said pond to the line of said lot lately occupied by John Wilde, thence along the line thereof north forty-two degrees east to the said Turnpike Road and place of beginning.
Containing fifty-one hundredths of an acre.

Second Tract—Beginning on the southwest side of the Newark and Pompton Turnpike road (now Bloomfield Avenue) and at the northwest corner of the said David Wilson's land, thence along said Turnpike Road north thirty-two degrees thirty minutes west five chains seventeen links to the Bloomfield Railroad, thence along the same south one degree thirty minutes east two chains and eighty-eight links, thence south four degrees thirty minutes east two chains, thence north forty-one degrees east three chains and twenty-one links to the place of beginning. Containing eighty-one hundredths of an acre—80-100. Together with all and singular the hereditaments and appurtenances to the said premises belonging or in anywise appertaining. The premises herein above described will be sold in two parcels as follows, to wit: The premises first herein above described will be sold first and as one parcel, and the premises secondly herein above described will be sold second, and as the other parcel.

Given under my hand this third day of June, in the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two.

Special Master in Chancery of New Jersey.
RODERICK BYINGTON.
S. O'F. & RICHARDS, S. O'F.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

To George Longstaff, Hannah Smith and Henry S. Smith.
By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the 10th day of June heretofore, in a cause wherein Timothy Burnett is complainant, and you and others are defendants, you are required to appear and plead, demur, or answer to the complainant's bill, or before the fifth day of July next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

This said bill is filed to foreclose a mortgage given by one John Vohs to Timothy Burnett dated September 1st, 1873, and registered in Book A. of Mortgages for Essex County, New Jersey, on pages 384, etc., to secure the payment of two hundred dollars and interest on certain premises situated on the east side of South Eleventh Street in the City of Newark.

And you George Longstaff are made defendant because in said bill it is alleged that you assumed said mortgage.

And you Hannah Smith are made defendant because said bill alleges that you are the owner of said mortgaged premises.

And you Henry S. Smith are made defendant because said bill alleges that you are the husband of said Hannah Smith and as such may claim some estate in said mortgaged premises.
